Spring 2024 Curriculum Announcements

Every Other Year Courses to be offered Spring 2024

Juniors and Seniors, if any of these courses are required under your track, please take the course(s) this semester. They will not be offered again until Spring 2026..

Restoration Literature – Bi 432

Josh Jen, 2 Credits

A study of Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi which deal with Israel's restoration from exile. An emphasis is placed on their modern day application.

World Religions – Is 202 (This course will not be offered again till Fall 2025)

Jeff Jaquith, 2 Credits

This course introduces the student to the world's major religious systems: Primal and Indigenous religions, Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Jainism, Confucianism, Taoism, Shintoism, Judaism, Islam, Roman Catholicism and Secular Humanistic religious thoughts and practices.

We will investigate these religions from several perspectives, including the historical, their philosophy, their origins and development, their beliefs and doctrines, worship and festivals, rituals, common practices, and their similarities and differences.

A great deal of emphasis will be placed on the student developing strategies to evangelize and disciple adherents of these world religions. This course will utilize a combination of discussions, lectures, films, and special speakers as time permits, in the presentation of the information.

Kings & Prophets – Bi 320

Ken Malmin, 2 Credits

A study of the kings and prophets of Israel and Judah placing emphasis on historical content and spiritual application. This course is the sequel to OT History.

Faith & Reason – Hu 213

George Burlo, 2 Credits

An examination of the reasonable basis for Christian faith and the related evidences.
